Program Information

Thousands of non-profit organizations are searching for your products and services. However, the organizations don't know what is available or where they can purchase them. In addition, thousands of smaller organizations would like to purchase items for their fundraising events, but cannot purchase in large quantities.

Enter BCA with a program: We search for top-quality goods that are in demand, we negotiate the best price for these goods and services. And, we make them available via our website.

We do all the work: We setup the web pages. We market the service. We take the order. We are the primary contact source to work through any problems that might occur.

All you have to do is fill the order.

Dramatically increase your sales!
